The 11 members attending a meeting Thursday evening of the Madison Branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) rejected President John Henry Williams' resignation.

He had submitted the resignation due to what he said were rumors being spread by some black people that he was involved in NAACP activities — and particularly the 1968 Venice arson case — for personal publicity.

Williams said he is contacting Venice Mayor William M. Ebersold to be placed on the next Venice City Council meeting and to ask Ebersold to call a public hearing in order to ask questions about burning of the house at 1242 Robin St., Venice, and the progress of investigations by the city, state and federal governments.

"I am not going to do my job the best I can," Williams said. "I take full responsibility for no one speaking at the last Venice Council meeting (Oct. 10) and for Mr. and Mrs. Percy Wade and myself being late." The Wades had placed a downpayment on the home, which they had started to repair.

"I have called a special NAACP meeting for Tuesday, Oct. 17, at 6:30 p.m. at the Friendship Baptist Church, 301 Mercedosa St., Venice, to discuss the problem.

Lakeside, Wis., Jan. 11—Route 111 at Horseshoe Lake is likely to be converted to commercial airport in the near future, according to a study by the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers.

In the area, Harold Davis, supervisor of Nankow Township, predicted during the study that the airport would be built.

"I recently attended a Chamber of Commerce meeting on the airport and it looks like they will go ahead with it at least not for a long time," Davis said.

The study was done as a government body will develop a comprehensive mental body for development.

to determine if the township can sponsor development of the field, since "only one thing can make it into a thriving entity, and that is the private sector," Davis' words.

Nankow Township Highway Commissioner Frank Meibach, speaking as a Democratic precinct committeeman, said, "I don't know if it will be built, but I don't limit it to the amount of ground they are set. People only want the way it is."

A congenial atmosphere prevailed in the decorated St. Mary's Church hall in Madison as the Democrats appeared to be genuine as county, district and state candidates discussed their hopes and proposals.

Illinois Secretary of State Alan J. Dixon of Springfield attracted a standing ovation and drew forth applause when he cited an informal 24th Congressional District poll of 2,100 persons indicating a 53-47 percent winning margin for Democrat Michael Bakalis over Governor James Thompson in the upcoming balancing act.

Dr. Donald Coleman, committee chairman, told township residents in April that development of a commercial aviation facility here, to serve only small propeller-powered airplanes, would cost about $1.5 million, mostly state and federal grant money.

He said the site would be handy to companies in downtown St. Louis and the Illinois portion of the metropolitan area for business use.

Chief of Staff Madison M. He added, "It is a very great honor for me to have good will, and confidence in me

3 Trailriders earn dual season trophies

The Trailriders Saddle Club of Granite City concluded its 1978 show season last week with a "point show" at the club arena on Chouteau Slough Road at Rock Road, near the Chain of Rocks Canal levee. Club secretary Kathy Bargiel announced this week the high-point champions for the past season — those who accumulated the greatest number of points in all club-sponsored point shows — and the reserve champions. Trophies were presented to the champions of all classes, and the reserve riders received ribbons. Three trailriders captured twin championships in separate classifications. Janetia Bowman scored top points to win championships in pony poles and pony barrels, riding Charlie. Bill Schneidewind, mounted on Tennessee Buck, won first place trophies in gaited country pleasure and fox trotting. Gary Dalton won championships on Cody's Classy Miss in the men's western pleasure and open western pleasure events.

Several riders achieved reserve status in addition to taking championship trophies. Contest classifications, with the champion and reserve listed in sequence, include: Junior bareback pleasure — Patty Woodard riding Ko-Ko, champion, and Kathy Neuner on Tuff Grande, reserve. Ladies western pleasure — Nancy Curtis, Wamp's Mocha Pine, and Barb Carter, Ima's Jet Pet. Junior poles — Mike Bowman, Little Buddy, and Dean Neuner, Mesa Shade. Halter (geldings) — Sonny Dalton, Sugar 'N' Peaches, and Kathy Smith, King's Lee Bar. Halter (mares) — Pattie Brynlyr, Ima Tuff Wampy, and Don Smith, Chuckwagon Lady. Halter (stallions) — Pete Fuller, Calhoun Royal, and Barb Carter, Ima's Jet Pet. Senior poles — Larry Weldon, Wide Eyes, and Ginger Bowman, Z-Bar. Pony pleasure — Chrissy Woodard, Ringo, and Diana Weldon, Smokie. Junior western pleasure — Kathy Neuner, Tuff Grande, and Patty Woodard, Ko-Ko. Open trail — Kathy Smith, King's Lee Bar, and Barry Barton, Major Bar King. Junior barrels — Jeanna Weldon, Fort Cody, and Dean Neuner, Mesa Shade. Ladies gaited country pleasure — Kim Schneidewind, Tennessee Buck, and Kathy Bargiel, Rex. Senior barrels — Lorraine Leroy, Bambi, and Russ Neuner, Mesa Shade. Men's western pleasure — Gary Dalton, Cody's Classy Miss, and James Woodard, Ko-Ko. Open flag race — Billy Leroy, Bambi, and Leon Weldon, Fort Cody. Junior plug race — Dean Neuner, Mesa Shade, and Jeanna Weldon, Fort Cody. Senior plug race — Russ Neuner, Mesa Shade, and Lorraine Leroy, Bambi. Reserve champions in classes won by double winners, include: Chrissy Woodard, Ringo, pony poles and pony barrels; Kathy Neuner, Tuff Grande, open western pleasure; Bill Burgess, Sue's Lady, gaited country pleasure; and Harold Heiney, Zane's Diamond Head, fox trotting.

In the club's final point show last week several classes of horsemanship were decided by those taking individual events. Triple winners were Barry Barton riding Major Bar King in men's western pleasure and open western pleasure and showing the same stallion in haltering. Janetia Bowman, mounted on Charlie, won first in pony poles, pony pleasure, and, pony barrels. Double event winners were: Tammy Maeras, haltering (geldings) and ladies western pleasure. Patty Woodard on Ko-Ko, junior bareback pleasure and junior western pleasure. Mike Bowman, junior poles and open flag race, riding Little Buddy. Will you
your taxes
again
this year?

Harley G. Davis
Executive Vice Pres.

You will, unless you set aside tax-deductible dollars this year — and in future years — and let earnings accumulate tax free, until you use them. And you can if you qualify for a retirement plan of your own.

If you work and are not covered by a retirement plan, you may qualify to start your own Individual Retirement Account (IRA). Your contributions — made every year, or only those years you wish — are deductible from your taxable earned income.

If you are married and your spouse does not work, you may qualify to establish two separate IRAs — one for each of you — into which an even larger total annual tax-deductible contribution may be made.

A Rollover IRA also may be used, under certain circumstances, to tax shelter benefit payments you receive from an employer's retirement plan, until you use them. You may qualify if you leave one job to take another, retire, or if your retirement plan is terminated by your employer.

DON'T OVERPAY YOUR TAXES AGAIN THIS YEAR!

If you think you may qualify for the tax benefits of an Individual Retirement Account, visit Harley Davis at First Bank. Together, you will explore your personal circumstances and determine the best course of action for you.

CHIROPRACTORS SEEK RESEARCH VOLUNTEERS

The International Pain Control Institute is presently engaged in what is the most extensive research program ever undertaken by the chiropractic profession. This research is directed toward determining the relationship between health problems and spinal misalignments and utilizes a screening process called Contour Analysis.

Volunteers are being sought for screening. Contour Analysis enables taking a three-dimensional picture (called Moire photography) of the topography of the surface of the spine to detect spinal stress deviations. This analysis will be correlated with leg deficiencies, patient symptomatology, and levels of spinal tenderness. An analysis of this type can reveal such things as normal and abnormal stress patterns, spinal curvature, muscle spasms, muscle imbalance, spinal distortions, and scoliosis.

This is a public service program for participating volunteers. The doctors are contributing their time, service, and facilities for the program.

Anyone wishing to be a volunteer may telephone participating doctors directly for information or an appointment.

It is a busy time for students, faculty, staff and parents connected with Granite City High School North, where homecoming week has begun.

Activities started today with a Silver Spirit chain contest, and students were wearing hats and suspenders. "Special happenings" will continue through Saturday, at 7:30 p.m., when the North football Steelers take on the Crusaders from Belleville Althoff in Memorial Stadium on Peeling Road.

Tomorrow, there will be a "hairy legs" contest and it also will be "twin day," in which pairs of students will dress alike.

"The shirt day" and a school button are part of the requested attire for Wednesday.

The homecoming play will be presented both Wednesday and Thursday at 8 p.m. in the auditorium located at South.

The play is "The Doctor in Spite of Himself."

Following the performance, a girl and a boy from the homecoming court will be presented as king and queen.

Girls who are members of the court are Tammy Luchini, Mary Thomas, Robyn Johnson, Karen Myracle, Lisa Henderson, Lisa Sobol, Donna Lindsay, Denise St. Ivany and Dana Buer.

Boys are Todd Reer, Dave Abbett, Rich Awalt, Tim Tingley, Chris Rogenski, Roberto Cuevas, Mike Painter, Tom Greco and Scott Robertson.

The homecoming court members are selected by the senior class, and the entire student body votes for the king and queen.

Announcement of the queen and king is kept secret until after the presentation of the court at the play Wednesday night.

Fancy clothes will be expected on Thursday and a "kong show" will be held during the sixth and seventh hours.

Sixteen floats will be entered in the Friday parade, competing for first, second and third prizes provided by the North Student Council.

Leaving the school at about 2:15 p.m. Friday, the parade will lead south on Maryville Road to Pontoon Road, right to Johnson Road, left on Johnson to Wabash Avenue, and then right to Pontoon Road, right to Pontoon to Maryville Road and left to Maryville, back to the school.

School organizations entering floats are the Student Council, National Honor Society, Vocal Club, Spanish Club, Pep Band, Pom Pon Squad, Future Secretaries of America, Flags and Hikes, Steelers, volleyball team, North cheerleaders, Silver Spirits, Media Club, Social Studies Club, True's Sweepstrokes, Yearbook staff and Future Homemakers of America.

A bonfire will be held in front of North High at 7 p.m. Friday with the pep band, cheerleaders and football team leading the festivities.

A disco band, "Sounds Unlimited," will provide music for the homecoming dance in the cafeteria from 8 p.m. until 11 p.m. Friday.

It will all be over after the game Saturday, but the memories will linger for many years in the minds of the North students, they commented.

New emergency radio frequency

Department of Law Enforcement Director Tyrone C. Fahner has announced that all Illinois State Police Emergency Radio Network (ISPERN) frequencies owned by the Illinois Department of Law Enforcement will be converted from the present ISPERN frequency to the new National Law Enforcement Emergency Frequency (NLEEF).

With the support of other state and local agencies, the conversion of 6,212 radios began last week and is to be completed by Dec. 12.

The ISPERN system was developed in the late 1960s to provide interagency communication between police agencies in Illinois. The system was the first of its kind in the nation.

The concept was enthusiastically accepted by law enforcement officers and has been considered one of the most valuable communication tools available to the policeman "on the street."

Through the efforts of Illinois law enforcement officials and the Associated Public Safety Communication Officers Association (APSCO), the Federal Communications Commission (FCC) was urged to apply the Illinois concept on a nationwide basis.

Based on the success in Illinois, the FCC in 1975 set aside one frequency to be dedicated for emergency use by law enforcement on a nationwide basis.

In the Midwest, the states of Indiana, Wisconsin, Missouri and Iowa are also moving toward implementation of the new National Law Enforcement Emergency Frequency.

"The advantage of such communications is particularly important to those police departments located near state borders," Fahner said.

Funds necessary to convert the units are being provided through a grant awarded by the Illinois Law Enforcement Commission.

Driver charged after crash

Ronald Q. Hanner, 19, of 1714 Chestnut St., who also gave an address in Bunker Hill, Ill., was charged with failure to yield the right-of-way on a left turn, no driver's license in his possession and not having a city sticker after his car and the auto of William A. Tanner, 55, of 1218 Granite Ave., collided at the Wagon Wheel Restaurant, 3007 Edwardsville Road, at 5:55 p.m. Friday.

Tanner suffered minor injuries in the accident after Hanner's eastbound auto allegedly turned left in front of his westbound auto at the restaurant's parking lot entrance.

Police ran a warrant check on Hanner and it was alleged he was wanted on a felony drug warrant. Officers alleged Hanner heard the police radio dispatch and fled on foot from officers.

Four policemen searched the area and allegedly found Hanner hiding under a bush nearby. He was taken to the Granite City Jail where warrants were served on him allegedly unlawful possession of a controlled substance, aggravated battery and robbery.

Police said the drug warrant alleged from an Aug. 22 incident in which police took a substance from Hanner which was sent to the state crime laboratory for analysis. The warrant was issued after lab results were returned.

The aggravated battery and robbery warrants were issued after Dennis Crable, 2162 State St., was beaten in downtown Granite City Sept. 8 and his wallet was taken. A woman is being sought in connection with that incident.

Eagle Park open house Saturday to show park

The Eagle Park Improvement Association will host an open house Saturday, starting at 9 a.m., at Steele Park and the Eagle Park Association Hall.

William VanBuren, association president, said the open house is planned to observe the completion of several projects in the park, financed through the Community Development Program.

Trees have been planted, general landscaping work now is finished and playground equipment has been installed in the park that has been closed for some time, according to VanBuren.

Volunteer residents of Eagle Park, plus workers from the special Community Development Program, were responsible for renovating the park area, the association president said.

At Saturday's open house, scheduled to continue throughout the day, many county and local political leaders, Venice School Board members and school administrators are among those expected to attend.

"Everyone is invited," VanBuren stated.

Members of the Eagle Park Ladies Auxiliary will have food items and soft drinks available. Remarks will be made by area civic, political and school officials, VanBuren reported.

A five-acre tract of land was donated for a park to the unincorporated community of Eagle Park in the mid-1960's by Mrs. Ida Dant, who owned the City and the late William John Steele, a Granite City realtor and developer.

The park was named Steele Park in honor of the couple.

CLYDE E. BEIMFOHR

National honor to Beimfohr

Clyde E. Beimfohr, president of Rite Electric Company, Granite City, has been elected a fellow in the Academy of Electrical Contracting.

Established in 1968, the academy recognizes those who have made outstanding contributions to the electrical contracting industry.

Beimfohr is among 14 new members nationwide in 1978 voted to receive the industry's highest honor.

The newly-elected members will be formally inducted in ceremonies at the 77th anniversary convention of the National Electrical Contractors Association (NECA) in Miami Beach in late October. NECA was founded in 1901 and has 5,800 members nationwide.

Long active in the NECA Illinois chapter, Beimfohr has held the two highest elective positions in the statewide association. He served as president of the Illinois Chapter from 1968 to 1972, and as governor of the chapter from 1972 to 1976. Currently, he serves as alternate governor. The Illinois chapter has 180 members. Principal office of the state group is in Springfield.

A resident of Macouck, Beimfohr joined Rite Electric in 1957 and was named president in 1963. The firm specializes in electrical contracting for industrial and commercial business throughout southwestern Illinois.

Our commercial loan department is in business to help your business. We know that with good management, you can make more money if you have more to use. And when wisely used, the money you borrow from the bank makes you more money than it costs.

For instance, a merchant without a large cash reserve is forced to buy from his wholesalers in small quantities — thereby missing out on sizeable trade discounts. Often, just a minimum increase in the size of the order could result in a significant increase in trade discounts which are based on quantities of items ordered. When a quantity discount is available that is several times larger than the interest on the loan to make the purchase, it's good business sense to take a loan and make the quantity purchase.

If you have a business opportunity which requires a cash outlay, see any of our officers. When they advise you on commercial loans... you can BANK on it!

Robert Hutchinson said that just before the shooting he, his brother and two women were in a friend's apartment when Robert went to bed. Mary Hutchinson came into the bedroom, offered his brother a drink and then left the room, it was related.

Moments later, a woman visiting the apartment opened the bedroom door, told Robert he should come out, and a shot was heard, Robert Hutchinson related.

He said he saw his brother slump to the floor and saw the other man, holding an automatic pistol and pulling the slide on the weapon, turn and aim the gun at Robert.

He said he jumped up, pulled the bedroom door shut and held it shut with his foot. Someone kicked the door, trying to open it, but Robert Hutchinson held it secure, he told police.

He said he waited until he heard people enter the apartment and heard screams in the hallway, and then came out of the bedroom.

Police could not locate the gunman or the gun, but found two live .38-caliber bullets in the kitchen, a spent shell on the stove and a live shell on a bedroom floor. A slug, believed to have passed through the victim, was recovered from the floor after it apparently bounced from a hinge in the hallway.

Officers said blood was found in the kitchen in several places. While questioning the witnesses, police said one woman alleged she had been raped Friday night by a man who held a knife and threatened her in her apartment in a nearby building. Officers are attempting to determine if the rape is related to the shooting.

Another young woman alleged she had been raped Thursday night by a man matching the same description.

At 5 p.m. Saturday, police took the 22-year-old man into custody whom Robert Hutchinson alleged had shot his brother. The man still was in custody today, pending a review of the case by the state attorney's office.

Marlin Hutchinson was a lifelong resident of Granite City and was of the Baptist faith. Surviving are his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Hutchinson of Granite City; seven brothers, Robert, J.L., Bill, Charles, Gary, Donald and Jerry Hutchinson, all of Granite City; and five sisters, Mrs. George (Mildred) Stidham, Mrs. Kenneth (Lucille) Hartberger, Mrs. Theodore (Phyllis) Strenowski and Miss Rita Hutchinson, all of Granite City.

Funeral arrangements are given in today's obituary column.

that had been inactive for years were started up again under his leadership.

Activities of the every-busy recreation department include well-attended teen dances, volleyball leagues and tournaments, tennis lessons and tournaments, workout room for adults, softball for small girls, the re-opened kiddie pool, a new soccer field on Third Street and McCambridge Avenue, new softball leagues and softball tournaments, and volleyball lessons for children.

Programs recently started include gymnastics, self-defense and a fun walk. Currently, there is a Halloween poster contest in the city for children from kindergarten age through high school.

When asked what he would like to see started in Madison, Dymas says, "I would like to have softball for younger boys and girls instead of baseball. We cannot get enough children or parents at this time to have a good baseball program."

"I would also like to have disco and square dance classes, but facilities are a problem. And we could have basketball and volleyball for winter activities. Wrestling classes and boys flag league also are in my future plans."

"Properties which have been assessed at lower than average percentages of their 'market value' will find their assessments increased after re-valuation."

"Those which have been assessed at higher than average reduced after re-valuation. Re-valuation thus offers the promise of equal tax treatment for all properties. The only change from past practices is the change resulting from a correction of existing inequities," Cruse concluded.

"The fair share plan doesn't tell anyone how much to give. It is a guide based on three things:

"First, the idea that a person in a higher income bracket is more capable of giving and has a greater tax advantage. Second, the statistics of previous campaigns. And, third, the fact that no one is asked for more than he was years ago, except in relation to his increased income."

University Women hear Dr. Muller

The October dinner meeting of the American Association of University Women (AAUW), Granite City branch, was held Thursday evening at Rosalie's Restaurant in Collinsville, and featured Dr. Julia Muller as guest speaker.

Dr. Muller is assistant dean of student affairs at the University of Missouri at St. Louis. She also is director on standing committees on women, Illinois State Division of AAUW.

She selected "A Woman's Place" as her topic and added years ago died at an early age. Economically a wife spent money but did not earn it during the Victorian era, and now is a wage earner.

Dr. Muller said that 50 percent of the women are in the labor force and educationally the AAUW has been a strong force in improving college and universities.

Mrs. Ruby Foster gave the invocation and Mrs. Jim Barton, first vice-president presided in the absence of Mrs. Elizabeth Edwards, president.

PUBLICATION ON COUNTY AREA POISONOUS PLANTS

Occasionally, livestock eat a poisonous plant. The two most common poisonous plants to livestock in Madison County are White Snakeroot and Black Nightshade.

Fall is normally the time of year that poisonous plants become a problem with livestock. The reason is dry weather, resulting in poor pasture growth. In a situation with poor pasture, livestock often browse wooded areas, and most poisonous plants occur in these woodland areas.

Any time a person suspects that livestock have been poisoned from plants, they should check the pasture and wooded area for poisonous plants. To aid in identification of poisonous plants, the Madison County Extension office has a book entitled "Poisonous Plants of the Midwest." The book sells for $2. The office is located at 900 Hillboro Ave., Edwardsville.

Mary chosen as co-pastor

Job's Daughters aiding 'braces' bond campaign

Job's Daughters will gather at Ainsel Temple on Sunday, Oct. 29, at 1:30 p.m. to honor the Shrine and to give their semi-annual "bonds for braces" envelope to Potentate C. A. "Jack" Dempsey, Granite City.

This is usually done in the Masonic temple of the host Job's group, which at this time is Edwardsville, but Honorable Queen Tami Howerton is bringing her Edwardsville bethe and asking the other ten bethe to go to the Grand for a combined meeting.

It may attract 600 past queens as well as many other members, plus Master Masons from all over Southern Illinois. There will be many guests, including Sherie Jacobs, grand bethe honored queen from Algonquin, head of all Job's Daughters in Illinois.

Susan Wright, Miss Illinois Job's Daughter from Willow Springs, will accompany her. DeMolay State Master Councilor Craig M. Burr of Urbana, plus Illinois Executive Director of Bessie also will be present.

Kay Sokolowski, administrator of the Shrines Hospital for Crippled Children, St. Louis Unit, will be present for the activities, plus some of the hospital graduates who have been aided by funds that were raised by Job's Daughters. Miss Patti Sandifer, guardian of Bethel 72 of Edwardsville, announced that Marty Love, grand outer guard of Granite City, Mrs. Rebecca Slate, grand 2nd messenger, also of Granite City, and Dorothy Floyd, grand 4th messenger, of Wood River, will be among the state officers present. Hugo Harber is associate guardian of Bethel 72. Mrs. Melvin Tucker, Highland bethe, will be coordinator for the day's program, and she is arranging for a special choir.

Refreshments will be served in the Temple dining room following the cutting of a 25th anniversary cake.

For 25 years Ainsel Temple has been supporting the U.S. government bond program through the Shrine program called "Bonds for Braces."

Individuals buy a bond in the name of the Shriners Hospital, and the Shrine hospital uses the money for treatment of the more than 1,100 children examined for treatment each year in the St. Louis hospital.

The program was started at Ainsel so that the money that formerly came from many football games would not be lost. Many people bought tickets to the football games, and games were decreasing in number.

A $25 or $50 bond can be bought at less than its face value.

Today, more than $3 million in bonds are at work for the Shrine hospitals, and more is being added each day.

The U.S. Treasury Department has honored the temple three times for its part in this fund-raising project since 1953.

The start of the program came under Potentate Robert Miller, and Orator David F. Mallett was in charge of the first effort when he received $200 from the ladies of the Elks of East St. Louis. Mallett continued the program the following year.

Today, more than 11 Job's Daughters bethehs of Southern Illinois join Ainsel in the yearly drive, plus DeMolays, Rainbow Girls and many other Masonic affiliated groups, and particularly the 38 Shrine clubs and 37 units of Ainsel.

Karen S. Crowell weds Dennis William McGuire

Miss Karen S. Crowell, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Murphy, 42 Parktowne West, and Dennis William McGuire, a son of Mrs. Maxine McGuire, 2210 Delmar Ave., exchanged wedding vows on Sept. 30, at Grace Baptist Church.

The Rev. William L. Duval of Alton, former pastor of Grace Baptist, officiated at the double ring ceremony at 3:30 in the afternoon. Greenery enhanced the altar, kneeling bench and entwined the candelabra holding a trinity candle.

A reception was held immediately following the service in the church fellowship hall. Keith Monahan presided at the piano and accompanied Mrs. David McGuire as she sang, "Amen's Song."

Escorted down the white carpeted aisle and given in marriage by her stepfather, the bride wore a full length white gown accented with lace on the high neckline, cuffs of the long sleeves, and was repeated on the chapel train.

Her shoulder length veil was bordered with floral lace motifs and she carried a bouquet of mountain roses, carnations and baby's breath tied with white streamers.

Matron of honor Mrs. James Fields Jr., chose a long beige gown and the bridesmaid, Mrs. James McMillan, selected a floral print formal length dress.

Both attendants held long stem white roses festooned with green streamers.

Wendy Burris, a niece of the bride, served as flower girl. She was dressed in a floral print frock and she carried a wicker basket filled with rose petals.

The bride's nephew, Jimmy McMillan was the ringbearer. Attending the groom as best man was James Fields Jr., groomsmen and ushers included Robert Harper, Michael Candier and Joseph Valencia, a brother-in-law of the groom.

The bride attended Granite City Schools and graduated in July from Venice Lincoln Technical Center. Her husband is a 1969 graduate of South High School and is presently employed at McDonnell Douglas Corp. He also served with the U.S. Army in Vietnam and in Germany as a helicopter crew chief.

After the reception the newlywed couple departed for a wedding trip to the Ozarks and are now residing in Granite City.

Out-of-town guests included Mrs. Cecil Mueller, Mrs. Roger Thompson and Mr. and Mrs. Owen Lemar of Rochelle, Ill., a grandmother, aunts and uncle of the groom, respectively. Also Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dietz and Ted of Peoria, Ill., an uncle and aunt of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Don Gibson of Collinsville and Charles White of St. Louis.

Osuchowski accepted by veterinary school

Michael John Osuchowski, son of Mr. and Mrs. Florence P. Osuchowski of 3327 Johnson Road, Granite City, has been accepted by the University of Illinois College of Veterinary Medicine in Urbana. Out of more than 400 applicants, 91 persons gained entrance to the freshman veterinary class.

There are only 22 veterinary colleges in the U.S. and entrance is competitive. Applicants are chosen according to their grade point average, admission test scores and personal interviews. Although only two years of coursework from an accredited college or university are required, most entrants have completed at least three and sometimes four or more years of college courses.

The four-year professional veterinary program provides an education similar to that required for human medical practice. Students spend the first two years learning such basic sciences as anatomy, physiology, parasitology, pathology and pharmacology.

The last two years are spent at the Veterinary Medical Teaching Hospital doing further coursework in nutrition, anatomy, medicine, surgery, radiology, reproduction and other biomedical sciences. During their fourth year, students spend much of their time working with cases in the clinic, gaining practical experience in diagnosis, medical treatment and surgery. Veterinary students at the University of Illinois must complete coursework dealing with both large and small animals. Specialization, if desired, does not come until after graduation.

Before being licensed to practice, graduates must pass state and national board examinations.

Driver arrested

Wilbert E. Herman, 24, of 504 Margaret Ave., Mitchell, was charged with driving while intoxicated and driving with a revoked license after police stopped his car at 19th Street and the railroad crossing at 12:35 a.m. Saturday. Police saw a red van westbound at 19th and State streets and followed the van, which allegedly nearly struck several parked cars.

Efforts to stop the van were unsuccessful, until it struck and broke the lowered railroad crossing gate and continued to the tracks, stopping near a train in the crossing, police reported.

The driver was ordered out of the car and police alleged he seemed unable to stand without support. He was taken to the Granite City Jail.

Plan boards lack quorum

Failure to achieve a quorum forced cancellation of both the Granite City Plan Commission and Board of Appeals meetings this week. Both were rescheduled.

The Board of Appeals members were polled on the telephone and agreed to grant a variance in property line requirements to Dave Sparks, 2401 Poston Road, to construct a gymnastic studio on his home.

He already had received a special use permit for the construction and had submitted a letter of approval from his adjacent neighbor.

All other business on the agendas of both boards was postponed until the new meeting dates. The Board of Appeals will meet at 1:15 p.m. Wednesday, Oct. 18, and the Plan Commission will meet Monday, Oct. 22, also at 1:15 p.m.

Both boards meet at the city office building at 2301 Adams St.

Faces 2 charges

Edward L. Abney, 44, of 1303a Twenty-first St., was charged with disorderly conduct and battery after a disturbance at 6:45 p.m. Friday in the emergency room of St. Elizabeth Hospital.

Security guards alleged Abney refused to leave when ordered to and police alleged he resisted efforts to place him in a jail cell and force had to be used to detain him.

Costuming to play key role in North homecoming play

Costuming will have an important role in the Granite City High School North homecoming play being presented at 8 p.m. on Wednesday and Thursday in the auditorium in South High.

Costumes for the play, "The Doctor in Spite of Himself," by Moliere have been rented from the Virginia Ascher Costume Company in St. Louis.

Miss Ascher last year furnished North with costumes for "Meet Me in St. Louis" — the same used for that production at the Municipal Opera.

Miss Ascher and her staff have worked to create the spirit of each Moliere character, school officials report.

No attempt at exact historical accuracy is being made in this year's play, and the costume stylization is based largely on the play itself.

"Costumes will express the spirit of the play and suggest the attributes of the character," Dr. Goni Michaeloff, director of the play, commented.

"They have been designed primarily for their expressiveness and are symbolic in the broad sense of general style. We feel the students' knowledge and interest in theater are enhanced by working in such costumes."

Tickets are on sale during lunch periods at North in the cafeteria. Tickets purchased in advance are $1.50 for students and $2 for adults. School activity tickets cannot be used at this event.

At the door, tickets will be $2 for students and $2.50 for adults.

Following the play each evening will be the presentation of the 1978 homecoming queen and king plus their court.

The cast is as follows:

Signarelle, a woodcutter, by Mark Belleville; Martine, his wife, by Lynda Loftus; Robert, a neighbor, by Steve Carr; Geronte, a wealthy man, by Bob Slate.

Areawide air quality meeting

Air quality in the St. Louis metropolitan area and possible new regional air pollution regulations will be the topics of discussion at a public meeting scheduled to begin at 7 p.m. tomorrow in the Holiday Inn Downtown, 2211 Market St., St. Louis.

The meeting is being co-sponsored by the Illinois Environmental Protection Agency and the Missouri Department of Natural Resources.

The general public, officials and other interested parties are being urged to attend.

Two principal areas of discussion are slated for the meeting.

The first will be the newly released special Air Quality Maintenance Area (AQMA) study completed by Environmental Research and Technology, an environmental consulting firm.

Following this, there will be a discussion of possible regulatory action which may be taken to solve air quality problems of the St. Louis metropolitan area.

This area includes Madison and St. Clair counties in Illinois and St. Louis, St. Charles, Jefferson and Franklin counties in Missouri.

"Both the Illinois EPA and the Missouri DNR are working under a tight schedule mandated by the U.S. Clean Air Act Amendments of 1977 to revise their air pollution programs by Jan. 1, 1979," an Illinois EPA spokesman said.

"The study found that neither Illinois nor Missouri air pollution regulations are tough enough to meet federal air quality standards for two industrial pollutants in certain areas: suspended particulates (soot, dust) and sulfur dioxide (gas emitted from certain industrial processes and the burning of coal and oil)."

Youth flees

Jerry D. Stafford, 17, of 2123 Nevada Ave., was arrested last week and charged with possession of cannabis and with escape.

An officer searched two youths at Fehling Road and State Street and alleged finding a marijuana cigarette in Stafford's clothing.

When ordered to get into the squad car, a youth allegedly told the officer he did not want to get into any more trouble and ran north on State Street and across to Fehling Road, where he disappeared behind houses.

Four officers searched and one alleged finding the suspect hiding under a bush in the 3100 block of Harvard Place. He was searched and a total of 19 marijuana cigarettes and one that was partially smoked allegedly were found in his clothing.

Police weighed the marijuana at 14.3 grams, they related.

Single executive for 2 universities no solution—comment

Collinsville Herald — An old idea is surfacing again. The Southern Illinois University Board is inviting comments on governance of the university, at 1 p.m. Tuesday, Oct. 17, at the University Center.

Some members of the board have expressed an interest in getting reaction to the possibility of going back to a single executive for the two SIU's: Carbondale and Edwardsville.

We'll put our comments right here for everybody to see. Not only should there be no return to a single executive, the board itself should be wiped out and each university should stand alone.

That should go with an elimination of all of the intermediate level administrations of state universities.

The system of systems which now purports to be a coordinated state method of delivery of higher education is expensive, uncoordinated, a tangle of competing bureaucracies duplicating personnel and services at the expense of taxpayers.

They are unified only in a conviction that they have to beat the other system to the bodies: the enrollment figures that justify the expanding staffs.

At present, the state maintains four systems of universities giving baccalaureate and advanced degrees, and an extensive system of community colleges (two years).

We would leave the community colleges out of the single board system because they are operated by local districts created by local referenda, paying local taxes to support themselves and dealing, by and large, with locally felt needs.

All are supposed to be coordinated by a board which lacks the authority to really manage them, and acts as a sort of ineffective referee in the fighting for competitive advantage.

We would eliminate all the systems boards, make each of their major campuses free-standing, and put the over-all control in the hands of the board of higher education.

The president of SIU at Edwardsville ought not to need to go through a board that must also balance off the demands of SIU at Carbondale, before reaching the board of higher education with his budget and plans.

The SIU board itself is an expensive, non-productive bureaucracy.

We thought the alma mater relationship between Carbondale and Edwardsville was very useful in SIU at Edwardsville's formative days.

Today, however, SIU at Edwardsville could stand alone if it weren't for the historic link represented by the single board.

Going back to the single executive would be a great mistake, we think.

The president and administration of a university don't HAVE to be on the scene, but they function far better if they are.

To run SIUE from Carbondale in its present stage of maturity would be a giant step backward.

In a well-ordered university system, we wouldn't see U. of I. as well as the regionally-named universities engaged in extension services. That's duplication.

We wouldn't see Southern Illinois U. at Carbondale running a medical school at long distance, in Springfield, when Sangamon State is there, on the scene. That's geographical inefficiency.

We wouldn't see the Southern Illinois U. law school in Carbondale.

It ought to be in Springfield, where there are far more lawyers competent to lecture, far more exciting legal cases to observe, legislative debates to stimulate, the Supreme Court, appellate court, and federal court to take notes on.

By comparison, Carbondale is a pallid backwater of the legal system.

The law school should have been under the wing of Sangamon State, administered by a school on the scene, not 150 miles away.

U. of I.'s extensive Chicago campus: medical, Chicago Circle, etc., ought to be managed by a president there, divorced from the distant U. of I. management.

When Senator Sam Vadalabene was trying to persuade Dan Walker to sign the bill to split the two SIU's, we supported him.

We have always thought that, one day, they would be split, because it makes sense.

Whether that ever takes place or not, we certainly think it would be a step backward to subordinate the two presidents and put the universities back under a single executive.

President Kenneth Shaw of SIUE opposes the single executive idea:

"I don't know if the state of Illinois should pay my salary just to pass on policies made somewhere else." He says, "If we're going to do it, I think we should err on the side of decentralization."

We don't agree with that last thought. There should be a single centralized board of higher education.

Centralized but streamlined, through elimination of the expensive layer of intermediate boards we have now.

Board of Regents: Illinois State, Northern Ill. U., Sangamon State.

Board of Governors: Chicago State, Northwestern Illinois U., Eastern Illinois U., Western Illinois U., Governor's State U., University of Illinois: Champaign-Urbana, Chicago Circle, Medical School in Chicago.

SIU: Edwardsville, Carbondale, Springfield (medical school).

Streamline the administration, eliminate the competition for state money, consolidate the programs.

It will never happen with the system of systems we have now. Putting SIU back under a single executive won't help.

Couple charged

Granite City police arrested two persons in an auto last week after allegedly seeing the car spinning its tires "fish-tailing" and driving in a hazardous manner.

Officers followed the car on 20th Street from Nidringhaus Avenue to Adams Street, where it was stopped. The male driver and female passenger allegedly switched places when the car stopped.

Officers said they found an open can of beer inside the car. Mark A. Stram, 23, Belleville, was charged with driving while his license was suspended, illegal transportation of liquor and reckless driving.

A computer check was run on Stram and police alleged two warrants are on file for him, one from Granite City charging unlawful use of a license, and one from Collinsville alleging failure to appear in court on a charge of driving while his license was suspended.

Susan Doss, 234 Lee Ave., was charged with allowing an unauthorized person to drive her car and with illegal possession of alcohol in a motor vehicle.

Slash property taxes—Bakalis

Democratic gubernatorial candidate Michael J. Bakalis last week pledged to reduce the residential property tax burden in Illinois by 20 percent during his first four years as governor, if elected Nov. 7.

"If I do not deliver on this pledge to the people," Bakalis said, "I will not seek a second term as governor."

He told reporters that his property tax program is a refinement of Democratic efforts to bring property tax relief to Illinoisans during the 1979 session of the General Assembly.

"Unfortunately for the people," Bakalis said, "Governor Thompson vetoes the property tax rebate program that passed both houses of the legislature. His veto says clearly where he stands on the issue of property tax relief — despite his proposition that will be on the November ballot."

Bakalis said his pledge to cut residential property taxes by 20 percent or not run again results from his experience throughout the 1978 gubernatorial campaign.

"Everywhere I have traveled during this campaign," he said, "I have encountered widespread cynicism and disbelief among people regarding all politicians."

"People have said to me again and again, 'Why should we believe you? What makes you any different from all the other candidates who make promises and then don't perform?'"

"Their view is that all politicians talk one way and act another. This is distressing to me, both personally and professionally, for I believe that public service is the highest calling a person can undertake."

"Well," Bakalis said, "I am answering the question of what makes me different, why people should believe me."

"I am putting my political career on the line with my pledge not to seek re-election if I do not fulfill the promise."

"As governor, I would:

1. Initiate and continuously work for legislation to reduce residential property taxes through the circuit-breaker approach.
2. This year," Bakalis said, "the people of Illinois paid $1.8 billion in property taxes on their homes, apartments and condominiums. That amount keeps going up every year as a result of inflation in residential property values."
3. "But higher home market values do not put anything in the homeowners' pockets to pay these escalating taxes. This property tax inflation is not only unfair to homeowners and renters, it also poses a grave threat to the economic security and well-being of all our citizens."
4. "Over the four years of my program," Bakalis said, "the cost to the state will be approximately $300 million. The most important feature is that this full amount will be returned to homeowners and renters — instead of corporate interests, as was the case in California's Proposition 13."
5. "Equally important is that the program can be funded through normal growth in state revenues of approximately $400 to $500 million per year. Thus, the Bakalis property tax relief program will not result in any increase in state income taxes or sales taxes."
6. "An important feature of my program, too, is that refunds of property taxes to homeowners and renters will not affect property tax collections to schools and local units of government."
7. "I would use the budget and veto powers as governor to hold the increase in state spending — that portion not returned to taxpayers and local governments — to less than the rate of inflation. All remaining revenue growth produced by existing taxes would go for tax relief and local government assistance."
8. Bakalis said he would oppose any state tax increase proposed during the next four years.
9. "Two-thirds of the more than $6 billion in general state spending," Bakalis said, "goes for the operation of state government, for public aid and Medicaid, and on contracts and awards for services and for our public universities and colleges. The other third of this money is distributed to local governments and taxpayers."
10. "It is essential that we in-

Truck purchase for township approved

Due to the bid specifications, the Nameoki Township Highway Department will purchase a 1978 International Harvester dump truck from a St. Louis dealership for $11,981, rather than accepting a 1979 truck bid from International Harvester in Collinsville for a vehicle costing $12,277, a difference of $296.

Highway Commissioner Frank Meheic said he would prefer a 1979 model from a Madison County dealer, but the bid specifications called for either a 1978 or a 1979 model and the International Harvester dealer in St. Louis submitted the only bid for a new 1978 model.

"I took the bids to Madison County Highway Superintendent Lester Miller and told him I would rather have the 1979 model for that small a difference, but he said I either had to accept the low bid specifications or throw out all the bids and seek new ones."

"Since we need the truck immediately, before it snows, and it will take some time to rebid and get 1979 models in, I guess we will have to take the St. Louis bid," Meheic told the Press-Record.

Other bidders were Broadhead Motors of East St. Louis at $12,365 and Bo Beckman Ford in Collinsville at $12,498, both for 1979 models.

The board last week opened the one bid it received for re-roofing the town hall and awarded a contract to Lakeside Roofing Co. for $1,721, plus $2.75 per foot for sheeting replacement where necessary.

Supervisor Harold Davis said paperwork still is holding back the use of community development grant funds for a larger water main to serve the Cloverleaf Subdivision, but said he hopes to get it going before severe weather.

He said the township also needs to sign a contract with the City of Madison, which must rent fire hydrants for the subdivision under terms of the grant.

The trustees discussed the legal ramifications of supplying free rat poison for township residents having problems with rats. Township Attorney Irvin C. Slate Jr. said he felt the township would be responsible if children or pets were poisoned accidentally.

Davis said some gardens which were not completely harvested or turned under are serving as feeding places for rats.

He said he felt the township's health board should study ways to help or encourage garden owners to plow their gardens under at the end of each growing season.

Several residents in the audience said they would be willing to sign "hold harmless" agreements with the township in return for professional rat poison, saying the commercial poisons they have been using are ineffective against rats which are used to it being around.

Slate was asked to further research the township's liability and try to find some way it can be made available to residents.

Warriors score late TD to edge Kahoks, 14-7

By DOUG IRVIN
for the Press-Record
GRANITE CITY — "This was a very big win for us," said smiling Granite City South Warriors coach Stan Wojcik. "I wasn't totally convinced that we won until the scoreboard showed us having more points and the clock showed four zeros."

Wojcik's Warriors downed the Kahoks of Collinsville by a score of 14-7 with the winning touchdown coming late in the fourth quarter. Senior Pat Hogan ran the ball in from the one yard line on third down to obtain the second win for the South Warriors.

THE WARRIORS looked tough from the kickoff return all the way through the game. On the return, the Warriors brought the ball to their own 25-yard line. Hogan, on a third down situation, ran for 16 yards to the South 45. Dave Mahaffey took the ball down to the Collinsville 35-yard line on the very next play. Fourth down on the 22-yard line, Rob Stegmeier set up the Warriors for a field goal attempt — wide.

The Kahoks after two penalties got nowhere with the pigskin and punted. Mike DeGonia of the Warriors returned the punt to midfield. Hogan on first down ran the MAHAFFEY ran the ball on a second down and was run out of bounds after he apparently got the first down but another penalty flag. This one against the Kahoks for facemasking. The Warriors were given the ball on Collinsville's 15 yard line. Three plays later, the score was 6-0. Scott Polson on a draw play ran the ball in from the three. Stegmeier's PAT kick was good and the Warriors led the favored Kahoks 7-0 with time remaining in the first quarter.

The Kahoks tied the score on their next possession. Their drive started on the Warrior 45-yard line after the kickoff run back. After three complete passes and one pass interference call against South, the Collinsville quarterback on the keep ran the ball one yard for a tie game after the PAT.

"They are a good ball club," said coach Wojcik. "We just killed ourselves early in the season and now these kids fought and are coming back."

COLLINSVILLE was driving in for another touchdown and was on South's 24-yard line when Jeff Parker, of South, intercepted a Kahok pass.

The Warriors went absolutely nowhere with it and punted to the Collinsville team. Time ran out after the Kahoks got two plays under way and at half time the score was tied at seven all.

During the duration of the third quarter the ball changed hands possession six times and never crossed the goal line.

Late in the fourth quarter, Collinsville had to punt. The 200-pound tackle of South, Rich O'Fallon, was able to get hand on it and the Warriors had possession inside the Kahok 35.

SEVEN PLAYS, with the last four being handoffs, with the last handoff going to Hogan and all the Warriors needed to defeat the Kahoks. Stegmeier's PAT kick added to the final score — 14-7.

Collinsville with ten seconds on the clock had one play left. It was a flea flicker. But one of the flickers was intercepted by Lee Heubner who went down with the win for South.

The bench as well as the crowd counted down — 5-4-3-2-1 — WE WON!

"A LOT OF THINGS are starting to go our way — bounces on kickoffs and punts are in our favor and penalties against us are less," comments coach Wojcik. "Our defense really picked up when Collinsville went back to pass."

"We had a real good week of practice," that helped a lot right there."

The Warriors lay their one-game "winning streak" on the line next Friday as they face Alton at Memorial Field.

DeSmet hands North 35-0 loss

By PETE HAYES

Sports Editor

of the Press-Record

GRANITE CITY — It was a first for the Braves beating the have-nots. Granite City North didn't have its first-string quarterback — it didn't have MANY of its first-string players. But St. Louis-based DeSmet obviously did. Spartan quarterback Kenny Klump led the attack and running back Gerry Steuber scored touchdowns of 12 and 35 yards enroute to a 35-0 drubbing of the Steelers.

WHILE DeSmet was rolling up 262 yards of total offense, the injury-riddled North offense managed just 74 yards ... all on the ground.

"We hustled, and that's all a coach can ask," said North coach Tom Wyrostek. "All of our injuries don't help, but I'm not going to use that as an excuse."

"Dadgummit, they're an awful good football team," said Wyrostek of DeSmet. "They don't do very many things wrong."

DESMET DID do a few things wrong in the game. They coughed up the football four times to North. But the Steelers were unable to convert on any of the turnovers.

DESMET's Klump, one of the leading QB's in the St. Louis area, wasted no time in getting the Spartans on the scoreboard. On DeSmet's first possession of the game, Klump guided his squad in two plays to midfield where he ran the ball himself some 38 yards to the Steeler 12-yard line on a quarterback-keeper.

JUST FOUR PLAYS later, Steuber scored around left end and scooted into the end zone. The extra-point kick attempt was wide.

Yardstick

	North	DeSmet
First downs	2	14
Yards rushing	74	147
Yards passing	0	15
Total yards	74	162
Passing (att./comp.)	7/0	4/1
Fumbles lost	3	1
Punts (no. avg.)	6/29	3/30
Yards penalized	20	25

Klump and his teammates were a vision in offensive execution, despite the few fumbles. "I think our offense is finally clicking," said DeSmet coach Bob Christian. "We've been off and on in our first few games, but at times tonight, it looked as if we had it all together."

"We're not pleased with the four fumbles," he said. "But some of that can be attributed to the slippery field. A hard rain hit the field about two hours before the game."

THE MULTITUDE of injuries has forced Wyrostek to go with many underclassmen. Does a team learn from a team like DeSmet? "I guess you can't help but learn, laughed Wyrostek. "If adversity brings out character in a young man, then our guys have an awful lot of character."

DESMET scored its second touchdown of the first period at the 2:06 mark. A four-yard run by Steuber carried the ball to the North two-yard line, where, on a second-and-goal, Klump scored on a quarterback-keeper. Ted Tussing's run for the extra point made the score 14-0 at the end of the period.

AS SPARTAN FUMBLE on the North 15-yard line was recovered by Bryan Garrett, ending a threat — for the time being — with 11:36 remaining in the second quarter.

The two teams exchanged punts and at the 7:34 mark of the second quarter, disaster struck North.

Stalled at their own 15-yard line, the Steelers set up to punt on a fourth-down and eight yards to go. But the snap from center to North punter Mike Long was over his head, and he was swarmed over by DeSmet defenders, giving the Spartans excellent field position to cash in for a third TD. They did.

In fact, it took them just three plays. Fullback Tom Gauss ran it in from four yards out. The extra point kick made the score 21-0 at halftime.

THE NORTH DEFENSE spoiled another Spartan drive in that first half when Tom Greco speared a Klump pass near the sidelines at his own six-yard line and rammed some 33 yards with his return.

"We had some good plays on defense," said Wyrostek. "But I'm not taking anything away from DeSmet ... they can execute."

EXECUTION was something Wyrostek said his team has been working on for weeks. "We'll continue to ... we're still at the point of working on fundamentals," he said. "You can't win football games without the fundamentals of blocking, tackling, running ... we're just going to have to practice and practice until we get it right."

In the third period, Steuber wasted little time in raising the score. On just the fifth play from scrimmage, the 6'11", 190-pound senior running back took the handoff from Klump, veered to his right, cut left and zoomed upfield 55 yards for the touchdown.

Then, with 4:32 remaining in the period, North quarterback Danny Patterson attempted a pass which was intercepted by DeSmet's Andy Schatzman and returned 75 yards for the Spartan's final touchdown of the game.

The fourth period was played with both teams emptying their benches, giving reserves a chance to see some varsity action.

With the victory, DeSmet's record is 5-2, while the loss plunged North to 0-7.

North announces

cage ticket plans

GRANITE CITY — There will be three plans for adult season tickets at Granite City North basketball games this year, according to school principal, Gil Walmsley.

The first plan is an $11.25 price for a non-reserved season pass to all nine Steeler home games.

The second plan is $14.25 for a reserved seat season ticket. The first two plans result in a savings of up to $6.75 over the $2 general admission one-game price.

The third plan features the ticket holder's name printed on his personally reserved seat. The cost is $18.25.

Seating plans may be selected at GCHS North during business hours any school day until Nov. 6. Last season's personalized season holders have until Nov. 1 to renew their season passes and keep their original seats.

WANNA MAKE SOMETHING OF IT? Granite City North running back Tom Greco (left) and DeSmet guard Brian Burrows seem to be squaring off and exchanging words here Friday night during the Steelers' 35-0 loss to the St. Louis-based school.

Great day for one-liners ...

Jones, Pioneers annihilate Madison, 50-0

EAST ST. LOUIS — Madison football coach Nick Jakich was philosophical about his team's 50-0 drubbing here Saturday at the hands of East St. Louis Assumption.

But after all, why lose your sense of humor about it?

"I gave the bus driver $10 and laid my head under the front tire, but he couldn't get in gear," laughed Jakich. "That's the kind of day we have."

In fact, the game was a great one for one-liners. "Custer's got nothing on me," said Jakich. "Not after this."

What Jakich and his coaching staff were referring to was the splendid one-run show put on for the fans by Assumption's running back, Kevin Jones. The 5'8", 157-pound junior ran with the ball 18 times, gained 233 yards and scored five touchdowns.

Yardstick

Passes had intercepted	2 0
Fumbles lost	0 0
Punts (no. avg.)	4/32 1/4

"This running is a thing of beauty," said Jakich. "But his entire team did everything right."

"Every time he (Jones) touched the ball, it turned into six points."

Assumption scored one TD in the first quarter, scored 22 points in the second and 22 in the third.

But that first-quarter TD set the tone for the game. On the opening kickoff (by Madison to Assumption), Jones took the ball at his own 15-yard line, veered to his left, cut to his right and sped away untouched for an 85-yard return and a touchdown. Jones ran the ball the end zone for a two-point conversion.

After he (Jones) ran that kickoff back, Charlie (Steeple, Madison assistant coach), looked at me and said, "I don't believe it, it's going to be one of those days."

And it was. While Jones was almost single-handily beating Madison, the Trojans were compiling offensive statistics that seemed meager in comparison to his. They managed 49 yards total rushing and 45 passing.

One or two bright spots did show for Madison, in spite of the lop-sided score. Regular starting quarterback Carlyn Jackson returned to the lineup after missing the last three games with an injured passing hand.

But the biggest news came when all-area running back James Heard played. Even though he was used at split end

GRANITE CITY — The

Edwardsville High golf team shot an outstanding 310 here Thursday to win the Granite City North District Golf Tournament, played at Arlington Golf Course. The Tigers outdistanced their nearest challenger by 27 strokes.

But the identity of that challenger is what's making news in Granite City.

Granite City South, led by Herman "Dutch" Schroeder and Jol King, shot a 327, good enough for second place and a trip to the IHSAA Class AA tournament being played today in Decatur and hosted by Decatur MacArthur.

O'Fallon finished third, edging Alton, 331 to 333 for the final sectional-qualifying spot. All members of the top three final finishing teams advance to sectional play.

Granite City North finished fifth with a 342 total.

BOB MANVILLE of

Edwardsville was the individual medalist with an 18-hole total of 75. In second was Edwardsville's Tod Opel with a 77 on the par-72 course at Arlington.

The reason for the high scores was a cold rain and wind that hampered the golfers off and on all day.

Jim Corbier of O'Fallon was third with a 79. Edwardsville's Jay Elhausen and Tom Malench also fired 79's. Fellow-Tiger Ty Nilsson shot an 82.

SOUTHS'S SCHROEDER and King each had 80's, as did Jeff Neal of Alton, rounding out the top nine golfers. Warrior Todd Burns fired an 82.

Also qualifying for sectional trips were Jerseyville's Greg Jones and Highland's Craig Ray. Neal, Jones and Ray earned trips because they were the top three scorers from non-team winners.

GOING INTO the 18th hole at Arlington, the foursome of Schroeder, Elhausen, Corbier and Ray were all tied with the same score.

But Corbier and Elhausen birdied the hole, Schroeder took a par and Ray shot a double-bogey to finish the exciting round.

Amazingly, most of the scores at Arlington wouldn't have qualified for sectional play had they been shot at the Belleville West Sectional.

For instance, one of the area's best golfers, Belleville's Althea Greg Koenig, didn't qualify with a 78. At Arlington, he would have placed third.

Other scorers for Granite City were: Larry Holder 85, Greg Mulach 86, Mike Wilson 86.

For Granite City North, the scorers were: Chris Andrews 83, Rob Fyalka 84, Scott Robertson 87, Russ Applegate 88, Paul Eads 89 and Dave Abbott 90.

DUTCH SCHROEDER

At the other area district tourney (held in Belleville), Belleville West was the winner with a 306 total. Belleville East was second at 311, while Olney and Mascoutah tied for third with totals of 313. All four teams will advance to the Decatur MacArthur Sectional today.

GRANITE CITY — They played golf here Thursday. But it would have been more suitable for ducks.

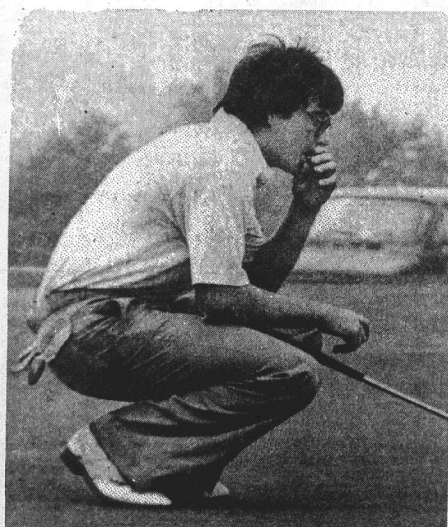

A cold October wind and off-and-on drizzle kept the scores high in the IHSA class AA Golf District played at Arlington Golf Course, hosted by Granite City High School North.

Edwardsville easily won the team title, but Granite City South finished a distant second . . . but good enough to make a trip to the Decatur MacArthur Sectional Tournament being held today.

South's Dutch Schroeder and Jol King shot 80's to help lead the way for the Warriors. But Granite City North wasn't as fortunate.

The host Steelers finished fifth and failed to qualify anyone for the sectional tournament.

Cougars set to begin cage practice today...

By AL BARNES
for the Press-Record
EDWARDSVILLE — Coach Jim Dudley will open practice sessions today (Oct. 16) for his Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville basketball squad. NCAA regulations permit member schools to start hand-wood court drills Oct. 15, which falls this year on Sunday.

While announcing the start of cage practice, Dudley also announced that all Cougar home games this year, which are played at the Edwardsville Senior High Gym, will start at 7:30 instead of the previous 8 p.m. tip-off time.

"We feel that the 7:30 p.m. starting time will make it more convenient for fans to attend. Newspaper deadlines and radio and television newscasts, too, are 10 to 11 each evening, and the 8 p.m. starting time of former years really pushed us to get the games over in time for the fans who couldn't make it to our games to get the results."

Expected to report for basketball practice are 10 veterans: Jim Allen, Bill Branz, Wardell Carter, Bonnie Lewis, Al McCarron, Kevin Frazier, Jeff Peedles, Tom Schmidt, Jeff Verstraete and Mike Waldo of Granite City.

In addition to these experienced players, Dudley has three outstanding and promising newcomers, all junior college transfers: 6'7" Lawrence Brown of Chicago, who played his JC basketball at Kankakee (Illinois) Junior College; Ron (Too Tall) Jones, 6'7" native of Middletown, O., who started the past two years at Lake Land Junior College, and Jerome (Baby J) Nelson, a graduate of Danville, Ill., High School, who was a standout member of the Danville Junior College squad the past two seasons.

Lost from last year's squad were starter Vince Barnett from Decatur and relief man at both forward and center, Dave Starkey from Normal, Ill.

Dudley said he expected at least 40 or more players to show up for the first week of practice. "From advance indications, we will have some really biterly fought battles for positions on the squad," he predicted.

He'll need every minute of time he can squeeze in if his Cougars are going to be ready and prepared to tackle the extremely tough schedule the SIUE basketball team faces this 1978-79 season.

Dudley and his charges will open on the road Nov. 25 at Mobile, Ala., against NCAA Division I power, the University of South Alabama.

Other AAU Division I schools on the SIUE schedule include: University of Nevada, Reno; Wyoming

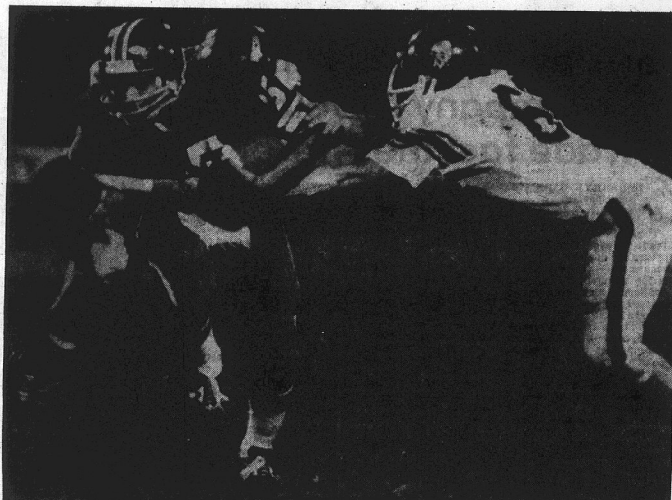

University; University of Northern Colorado; St. Louis University; Kansas State University; and Illinois State University.

New on the Cougars slate are: South Alabama, Nevada-Reno, Kansas State, Wyoming, and the University of Northern Colorado.

Metropolitan St. Louis area fans will see their first opportunity to see the Cougars in action Nov. 29 (Wednesday) when Missouri Baptist College of St. Louis comes to Edwardsville.

In eight years at SIUE, Dudley has compiled a 109-99 record. His past three seasons have been just under 500.

Two of the Cougars' games will be played at the St. Louis Checkerdome (the former Arena). First will be against Kentucky Wesleyan prior to the St. Louis U. game with the Cardinals of Louisville U., Thursday, Feb. 15. Second will be against the St. Louis U. Bills in the main game on the card, Feb. 24.

BREAKING THROUGH a gang of Collinsville defenders is South Warriors Blake Ambuehl (15). South gained its second win of the season here Saturday with a 14-7 verdict over the Kahoks.

...While Jones and Red Birds start drills at Illin's State

By ROGER CUSHMAN
for the Press-Record
NORMAL-BLOOMINGTON — Illinois State University's basketball team opened practice Sunday (Oct. 15) for its first season under Coach Bob Donewald.

Donewald, an assistant coach at Indiana University for the past five years, plans to hold a photo session and media interviews at 1:30 p.m. Tuesday at Horton Field House.

Otherwise, the Redbirds will be pushing hard for a Nov. 17 exhibition game with the National Team of Poland. The regular season will open Dec. 4 at Indiana State, where the last season closed with a two-point Illinois State loss in the National Invitation Tournament.

Illinois State is armed with eight lettermen including four starters from a 24-4 season. The departed starter is forward Billy Lewis, a four-year regular who led the team in both scoring and rebounding last season.

The other four starters all averaged in double scoring figures, however. They are 6-5 guard Ron Jones (16.2) of Venice (Washington), 7-foot center Joe Galvin (11.2) of Bloomington, 6-1 guard Derrick Mayes (11.1) of Elgin and 6-8 forward Del Yarbrough (10.8) of North Chicago.

Other lettermen are 6-5 forward Rick Forno of Miles (Notre Dame); 6-8 center Roy Herold of Helsinki, Finland; 6-4 forward Anthony Jones of Chicago (Westinghouse); and 6-6 forward McKay Smith of Springfield (Southeast).

Mayes and Forno are the team's only seniors. The Redbirds have a sophomore guard, 6-foot Dave Nussamer of Chicago, who transferred from Alderson-Broaddus College of West Virginia, and three freshmen — 6-3 George Carter of Middletown, Ohio; 6-6 Joe Richardson of Indianapolis, Ind.; and 6-5 Dale White of Covington, Ind.

Donewald is a 1964 Hanover graduate who posted a 120-60 record while coaching at St. Joseph's High School in South Bend, Ind. During the five years he was at Indiana University, the Hoosiers had a 121-27 record, with five tournament titles including the NCAA in 1976.

Three Big Ten Conference championships and two undefeated seasons. His assistant coaches are Jim Platt, a 1973 graduate of Concordia of River Forest; Sam Starkey, a 1964 Notre Dame graduate; and Terry Smith, a 1972 graduate of Marian College, Indianapolis.

Warriors tie Hazelwood; beat Quincy kickers 2-1

By DOUG IRVIN
for the Press-Record
GRANITE CITY — Rain and wind hampered the soccer Warriors as they had to settle with a 2-2 draw against the Spartans of Hazelwood East. Saturday afternoon, the Warriors were contented to beat Quincy 2-1. Both games were held on "The Gauntlet," South's home field.

"The weather was definitely a major factor in Friday's tie but you got to give credit to Hazelwood for coming back. Saturday's game looked a little better," said South's coach Gene Baker.

SOUTH 2, QUINCY 1
Only 17 shots on goal came out of the game. Ten of those 17 came in the first half where no scoring happened. The action was pretty well split between the two teams with most of it being in mid-field.

The Warriors had two good opportunities to score in the second period. One being when Fred Schuler had the ball and two defenders and the keeper were near him. He broke away from the two defenders and the keeper came out of the goal to reduce the angle of the shot. Schuler fired his shot and it went wide by less than a yard.

The second was off of a corner kick by David Fernandez. The kick was a beauty but a Quincy back got his head on it and cleared it from the danger zone.

Halfback Scott Easley of Quincy took a pass from Jay Ray and got a good hard shot on South's keeper Andy Costello. Costello got a hand on it — but the ball went in and Quincy led 1-0.

Not three minutes later, Phil Beljanski shot from 20 yards out. His shot hit the right goal post and Danny Long took advantage of everyone's confusion and tied the score. Beljanski received the assist.

Jeff Tinsley took the ball and scored the winning goal.

Long, unassisted, put South ahead by three, just six minutes into the second period. But the third period is what really hurt the proud Warriors.

East shot and Alex Paz, South's keeper, went down to knock that shot away. With Paz down, Tom Kersting put the first point on the board for the Spartans. That's when the rain came and stayed.

Mark Eckenroth, in the fourth period, stole a Warrior backfield pass and went on a breakaway. Paz came out of the goal and went down to reduce all odds. Eckenroth fired to Paz's right and Paz tagged the ball, but the score went to 2-2.

Kersting with an assist by Tom Kinney tied the score and at time ran out the game was a draw.

The Warriors will enter their next battle on Tuesday at Collinsville. "We haven't been talking to each other out there on the field — that's been hurting us," said coach Baker. "But Saturday, we talked and won."

With Saturday's win over Quincy, South went ten-for-ten winning all of its playoff-to-play system games.

Cougars down Akron; host Quincy Saturday

By AL BARNES
for the Press-Record
EDWARDSVILLE — Bob Dowdy, 26-year-old coach of the University of Akron soccer team, stood dejectedly outside of the Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville locker room after his Zips had been zapped, 6-0, by Coach Bob Guelker's Cougar kickers Saturday afternoon.

Dowdy, dejected, but still defiant, flared out in anger when asked about the play of the Cougars. "We played right with them the first 20 minutes and we definitely were in the game," Dowdy angrily answered.

Akron won 5-0, and lost only to the SIUE, No. 1 ranked U. of Indiana (2-1) and top-rated Quincy College (5-0). The Zips' have not beaten the Cougars in a long series which now stands 11-0-1 in favor of SIUE.

The young coach, who played his undergraduate days for the Indiana Hoosiers, calmed down almost as quickly as he had flared up. "In fact, we were pretty lucky that first half to hold you all scoreless that first 20 minutes. The Cougars very definitely are the best team I've seen this season," he said emphatically.

Dowdy definitely was right about that first half: SIUE outlasted the Zips by a wide margin, 2-0 to nine, but it appeared for the first 20 minutes that they couldn't get a goal. But, at that point, Little Joe Cacciatore took an accurate lead pass from the closely guarded Don Ebert and sent the SIUE, No. 1 ranked U. of Indiana (2-1) and top-rated Quincy College (5-0). The Zips' have not beaten the Cougars in a long series which now stands Cougars' top scoring striker (now 15 points). Brian Higgins, who played a brilliant game at midfield, missed the direct penalty kick, but the rout was on for the Cougars.

At 43:10 Ebert made it 2-0 SIUE; at 44:13 Higgins was on target this time as a pass from Matt Mallory and scored and the Cougars led 3-0 at the half.

From then on, it was just a matter of how many SIUE really wanted to score. In the second half, Mike Kelley, Tim Guelker and Dave Hummert scored.

This coming Saturday (Oct. 21) the Cougars host Quincy College and two days later, again at Cougar Field, they'll meet a newcomer to the SIUE schedule, the Coward College of Tennessee in a game starting at 4 p.m.

QUINCY — Granite City North Soccer coach Bob Kehoe says his team's victory over the Steelers at the 6:00 mark of the period, at that point, a penalty shot was called for when North's Tom Verduc's came down on Notre Dame's Gary Koesters after going up for a head ball and brushing the ND player's back as he came down.

Koesters made good on the penalty kick attempt and scored the winning goal.

"That demoralized our team from that point on," said Kehoe. "We felt we had things going our way and couldn't get it back together after that."

pull it out of the fire," said Kehoe. "Play was definitely going our way."

But things didn't go the way of the Steelers at the 6:00 mark of the period. At that point, a penalty shot was called for when North's Tom Verduc's came down on Notre Dame's Gary Koesters after going up for a head ball and brushing the ND player's back as he came down.

Residential improvements to accompany development of trade facilities here

By HARRY K. BARR
Manager
Foreign Trade Zone 31

The Madison County Foreign Trade Zone development program consists of two components—the development of the required facilities and site improvements necessary to proceed with the operation of Foreign Trade Zone 31, and the upgrading of residential neighborhoods within the three communities of Madison, Vanice and Granite City surrounding the port.

All three have been designated as UDAG eligible communities Urban Development Action Grant. They as well as the county will benefit significantly from the successful completion of this program.

The overall goal of the proposed UDAG project is to eliminate conditions of economic stagnation and high unemployment within Madison County that have resulted from recent declines in the manufacturing sector, through the development of Foreign Trade Zone 31 in the Tri-City Regional Port District.

In seeking to attain this goal, the county will be taking positive steps toward the stabilization of its economic structure through the promotion of existing and new industrial development in Madison County and the St. Louis metropolitan area.

A secondary objective is the revitalization of residential neighborhoods within communities adjacent to the port.

In conjunction with this goal, specific objectives have been established for the Foreign Trade Zone development project which serve as an outline for the project strategy.

Each of the following objectives addresses a key element of the development strategy. The objectives are:

A. To construct the required security facilities and other site improvements necessary to make the FTZ fully operational.
B. To increase employment opportunities as a result of FTZ activities and industrial expansion generated by the FTZ. Many jobs will be created in the FTZ and adjacent industrial park within five years of completion of the FTZ project.
C. To expand housing opportunities and improve neighborhood environmental conditions for low and moderate income families that could reasonably be expected to obtain jobs due to industrial expansion.

D. To encourage and facilitate international commerce, particularly export trade, by providing regional businesses oriented to the international market with a cost-saving facility and tool.

Foreign Trade Zone 31 will provide most of its services to firms using imported materials and components which are eventually sold here.

By providing greater flexibility as to how and how Customs duties are paid, FTZ 31 hopes to encourage these companies to use the zone in distributing their foreign items, and to receive them in a less finished condition so that they can be completed in the zone.

The use of zones for exports on the other hand, is often overlooked.

Exports from zones have in the past averaged between 15 and 20 percent by value of annual shipments.

The fact that last year's shipments to foreign countries amounted to 25 percent, or $153 million, suggests, that firms should take a closer look at how they might take advantage of this type of zone use that results in a total forgiveness of Customs duties.

The estimate that only one of 12 domestic manufacturers is involved in exporting its products, while it could well be one in six, indicates a great potential for improving our national balance of payments in trade.

For this reason, it is a most appropriate time to focus on the ways in which the special Customs procedures available in Foreign Trade Zone 31 can assist firms exporting from the United States.

Foreign trade zone exports fall into the following categories:

1. Foreign goods transhipped through U.S. zones to third countries.
2. Foreign goods processed in the zones and then transhipped abroad.
3. Foreign goods processed or assembled in U.S. zones with some domestic materials and parts and then re-exported.
4. Goods produced in zones wholly of foreign content and exported.

5. Goods produced in zones from a combination of domestic and foreign materials and components and then exported.
6. Domestic goods moved into a zone to achieve export status prior to their actual exportation.

The advantage Zone 31 provides in the first five situations is basic to the zone concept.

Any foreign goods or materials brought into the zone for any permissible activity and ultimately shipped to a third country, either in their original or a completely altered condition, are not subject to custom duties or federal excise taxes, and usually are not chargeable against quotas.

It should be added that such operations are also not normally be subject to state inventory taxes.

This makes Zone 31 a suitable place for export processing or manufacturing operations in which high-duty foreign components and materials are needed to make the end product competitive in overseas markets.

In past years, relatively high U.S. labor costs tended to keep down this type of zone activity. But the recent leveling out of labor and other production costs among the industrialized countries has, in improving the overall U.S. investment climate for manufacturing and assembly plants, provided an economic basis for an increase of such operations in U.S. zones.

Whether use of Zone 31 will result in a significant saving is, of course, determined by a cost-benefit analysis on a product-by-product basis.

In considering how Zone 31 might help cut costs, it is important that a firm's operations be reviewed not only as currently conducted but also how they might be with the greater Customs flexibility that would be available.

For one firm it will suffice to lease floor space in our warehouse and processing facility which we provide as part of our public services under a published rate schedule.

In this way, the benefits are available to companies whose facilities are outside our boundaries.

Where a decision is made to locate the plant itself within our zone space, we offer open land under long-term leases.

Taking present-day economic factors into account, the kinds of products that would most likely benefit from the use of our zone for the first five types of zone operations listed above are those with a relatively high technology content.

Here we find a fast growing assortment of complex, sophisticated, high-value products produced from components purchased worldwide and assembled in plants no longer tied to particular countries or regions because of transportation costs.

The U.S. Commerce Department's district offices have, with their informational material for exporters, a list of domestic products considered to have a competitive edge in the international market.

With only half the estimated 50,000 domestic firms with export potential actually involved in that phase of marketing, the list is intended to alert businessmen on some of their overseas sales possibilities.

Some of the industries listed are:

1. Computers and related equipment.
2. Construction-mining-materials handling equipment.
3. Electronic components.
4. Metalworking equipment.
5. Health care industries equipment.
6. Communications equipment.
7. Building supplies and air-conditioning equipment.
8. Business equipment and systems.
9. Electronic production equipment.
10. Aviation and avionics equipment.
11. Laboratory instrumentation.

12. Agribusiness equipment (agricultural machines, food processing/food packaging equipment).
13. Graphic arts equipment.
14. Pumps, valves and compressors.
15. Condensers and chilling equipment.
16. Filtration and purification equipment.

These are examples of the industries that might find foreign-trade zones helpful in sharpening their competitiveness to enter new foreign markets.

The sixth and last of the types of zone exports referred to involves a means of obtaining "export status" on domestic goods prior to their actual shipment overseas.

This benefit applies in situations where some kind of government credit accrues upon exportation.

One example is the "drawback" procedure of Customs, which allows the recovery of duties paid on foreign materials used to manufacture a domestic product that is exported.

For the purpose of "drawback," goods are considered exported as of the time they enter Zone 31, if they are committed for export.

This is controlled by Customs, which records the entry as "zone restricted merchandise," a category of goods that cannot be brought back into Customs territory.

This "accelerated export status" can also be used in applying for federal excise tax rebates on exported goods.

Thus far, the greatest such use of zones has been for liquor exports.

This benefit also applies to such other excise tax items as tobacco, trucks, buses, trailers, auto accessories, tires, petroleum products, fishing equipment, and certain firearms and sporting goods.

The excise tax rebate accrues as of the time of the "constructive" exportation.

The Foreign Trade Zone Act provides that zone export benefits may also be made available under other export programs where it is deemed advisable by the administering agency.

An example would be the Agricultural Department's export credit and subsidy programs. These programs usually require that goods be actually exported before credits can be obtained.

The nature of subsidy programs is such that this will likely remain unchanged for them. In the case of credit programs, however, it is conceivable that there might be situations where the accelerated export procedure might be consistent with the program's objectives.

Hiring, bids at Venice school board meeting

The Venice School Board accepted a letter of resignation from one employee and hired four persons to fill vacant positions during Thursday night's meeting.

The board accepted a letter of resignation from Ronald Bravley, who has been working at the school as a custodian. He has been going to night school and is preparing to enter the law enforcement field.

A counselor position in the Title VII program has been filled with the hiring of Solastine Johnson. The counselor position has been vacant.

Stanley Williams has been hired to teach sixth grade in a position left vacant by Robert McKinney, who is moving into a vacancy in the Title VII program.

Also moving to the Title VII program is Mrs. Tina Ponce. Her second-grade teaching position has been filled by the hiring of Miss Betty Townsend.

Also hired at the board's Thursday meeting was Debra Magary, who will fill the secretary-bookkeeper position in the superintendent's office made vacant by Mrs. Opal Mann. Mrs. Mann had resigned earlier, as she and her family are moving out of state.

The board received bids on new and used buses from the Padfield Bus and Equipment Co. of Bressie, Ill., and the Vandallia Bus Lines. The school called for the bids in order to purchase a third bus to be used as a back-up in the event that one of the regular buses would break down.

The school had to pay more than $2,000 last school year for back-up bus service due to a breakdown of one of the district's buses.

The bids were given to a board committee for further consideration.

Charge man in rape case

Robert Lee Wallace, 27, of 3701 Johnson Road, reported to Granite City police Friday morning and was charged with rape, deviate sexual assault and unlawful restraint.

Police were told that a 27-year-old woman had been raped twice Sept. 29 by a man in his car, parked along a dead-end street. The man displayed a gun, it was contended.

Wallace was named in a three-count informational document issued by the Madison County Attorney's office. He appeared Friday before Associate Judge William Johnson, who set his bond at $100,000.

Lionesses are CPR trained

The Lioness Club of Pontoon Beach received a four-hour cardiopulmonary resuscitation (CPR) class last week. The class is offered as a service of the Lioness Heart Association.

Instructors were Michael John Karlechik and Charles Polley, both of the Long Lake Volunteer Fire Department.

Lionesses who attended and completed the course were Maribeth Dake, Thelma Dine, Glenda Duvall, Charlotte Fowler, Patti McGart, Diane Miller, Cindy Niepert and Sandy Stein.

Each Lioness received a card of certification in cardiopulmonary resuscitation.

Following the course, appreciation awards were presented, on behalf of the Lioness Club, to Polley and Karlechik.

ARCHAEOLOGICAL STUDY OF REND LAKE SHORE
The department of anthropology at SIUE has received a grant of $39,099 to conduct a "cultural resource shoreline survey" at Rend Lake, for planning purposes of the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers. About 14 miles and 162 miles of shoreline of the man-made lake located in Franklin and Jefferson counties of Illinois will be the subject of the survey.

Sidney G. Denny, associate professor of anthropology, said Friday the purpose of the study is to determine what archaeological sites exist in the area and what is happened to them. Denny compared the survey to "taking a cultural inventory."

Community concern, service by university

Community service is an idea whose time has come and is an institutional imperative for Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, according to Dr. Kenneth A. Shaw, president of the university and principal speaker at a breakfast session of the National Community Education Workshop in St. Louis last week.

In concert with expressed community needs, we must give no less than our best. We have the capability of doing this because there is an increased sensitivity among university officials to the need for involvement in the communities.

With enrollment stability, we now are able to put more of our resources into this particular area," he said.

"More than 100,000 persons have attended SIUE, and approximately 27,000 degrees have been conferred in the university's short history; 80 percent of SIUE graduates tend to stay in the area.

"Add to this the special seminars, in-service programs and consultation time that our School of Education faculty has provided, and I would contend we have had a significant impact on the educational establishment in the region.

"The main claim I would make about all these numbers is that if we were not in place to offer higher education, all too often the community would not have had that choice."

The president's statistics included more than 2,500 students who have been given remedial assistance through the university's Supplemental Instruction Program, "and many more have received informal instruction and counseling," he said.

Other examples cited include environmental expertise being provided through the Environmental Resources Training Center; activities of the Center for Urban and Environmental Research and Services (CUERS) to assist with the resolution of economic, social, and other local problems in the urban region; radio programming; the university's faculty members who are available to address topics of current concern in area communities; and research in community health, improvement and health delivery systems.

In regard to CUERS, he described the center's work in assessing St. Louis for the 1984 Olympics and in developing reports on the energy crisis, lead paint removal in St. Louis, rental housing, carbon monoxide poisoning in the St. Louis area, and other topics.

WSIE-FM, the university's radio station, has announced its public service broadcasting schedule for the academic year, including numerous programs on the humanities.

Other community-related activities of the university include studies being conducted to measure for the academic year, including numerous programs on the humanities.

Other community-related activities of the university include studies being conducted to measure for the academic year, including numerous programs on the humanities.

"Our studies will include a determination of the effect of the proposed move on Alton and Edwardsville," Dr. Shaw said.

"This is a community service because the university is taking a comprehensive look at the impact, as opposed to not being concerned about the communities we live in."

The institution also is working to coordinate activities with State Community College in East St. Louis. "Our cooperative discussions with SCC are attempting to delineate our respective roles, which will make for a better overall program of education for citizens of East St. Louis."

The Metro-East Institute of Lifeline Learning is an attempt by the university and area colleges to cooperate in providing adult education experience, as opposed to the current program of education for citizens of East St. Louis.

"SIUE is assisting with housing development plans in area communities because of our designation as a commuter campus, additional housing for the campus cannot be approved."

"A major concern is the so-called back-to-basics concept of education."

"No one is insulated from this problem," Dr. Shaw said. "Functional literacy has been on a rise so alarming that we must bear some of the responsibility."

"Let us not forget — as some would conveniently like to — that literacy among inner city youth is over 40 percent of the population, we can measure. In all probability, it is worse."

"Our lines of communication remain open, and we continue to be committed to adapting our programs to these community imperatives as they express and exert themselves."

Training in child abuse prevention

A statewide child abuse training program for law enforcement officers and social workers was announced last week by Director Margaret Kennedy, Department of Children and Family Services, and Director Tyrone Fahner, Department of Law Enforcement.

An intensive, one-day course developed by DCF and DLE will be offered to 1,000 law and social work personnel between this month and October 1979. At least 50 sessions will be held in 30 communities.

Sites will include Mount Vernon's Rend Lake College, Dec. 18, 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. "The complex problems of child abuse and neglect demand a cooperative, coordinated response from state and local agencies," Director Kennedy said. "Through this training, we hope to establish a unified approach for consistent and appropriate action."

A team of DCF and DLE instructors will conduct the classes. About 50 people will attend each class, including 10 DCF employees, 20 DLE officers and 30 local-level officers. Areas of emphasis will be: roles and responsibilities of DCF personnel and law enforcement officers; common problems and cooperation between agencies; identification and reporting procedures, and preliminary investigation techniques.

Fahner stressed that the classes will promote better rapport among those who deal with child abuse cases. He said the sharing of regional contact information at the classes also will promote better communication between agencies during emergencies and crises.

"Feedback from these courses will be utilized in developing more extensive courses," Fahner said. "Planned for the fall of 1979 are 40-hour and 80-hour DLE courses on criminal investigation of child abuse and neglect cases."

The IASB is a voluntary service organization of about 1,000 school boards in Illinois, with headquarters in Springfield.

The Southwestern Division includes the counties of Jersey, Madison, Monroe, Randolph and St. Clair.

Sisters injured

Three persons were injured when the eastbound auto of Granite City Alderman Warren Decatur, 61, of 3229 Colgate Place, and the northbound compact car of Miss Cynthia Johnson, 23, of 3310 Princeton Drive, collided at Nameoki and Pontoon roads at 10:05 a.m. Thursday.

Miss Jeri Johnson, 21, also of 3310 Princeton, a passenger in her sister's auto, suffered severe injuries and was transferred from St. Elizabeth Hospital to Firmin Desloge Hospital, St. Louis.

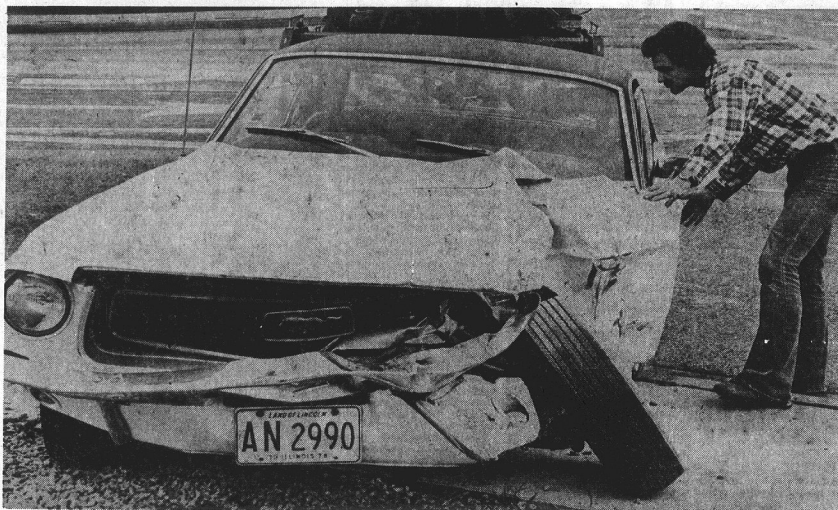

Cynthia Johnson was ticketed for allegedly disobeying a red light. When the two cars collided, the compact auto caught fire in the engine compartment and another motorist, Steve Lathrop, 21, of 2801 State St., rushed to the car and pulled the unconscious passenger from it. He also helped the driver out, and then recognized both young women as friends.

Another person, extinguished the flames with a fire extinguisher as firemen, a rescue truck, Granite City ambulances and police rushed to the scene.

The sisters were taken to St. Elizabeth Hospital by ambulance. Cynthia Johnson suffered bruises to her chin and face, and injuries to her left shoulder and neck. X-rays were taken and she was admitted.

Jeri Johnson suffered severe head injuries, a cut to the back of her head and cuts to both lower legs and was transferred to the St. Louis hospital.

Granite City Fire Chief Don Parente later took Decatur to the hospital and he was treated for a bump on his head, a cut to his right hand and pain in a shoulder. He was X-rayed and released.

"GOOD SAMARITAN" who pulled an unconscious passenger out of this car as flames poured from the engine compartment following an accident at Nameoki and Pontoon roads Thursday, Steve Lathrop examines damage to the interior. The driver of the car, Cynthia Johnson, 23, was admitted to St. Elizabeth Hospital and the passenger, Jeri Johnson, 21, suffered multiple injuries and was taken to Firmin Desloge Hospital, St. Louis. Granite City Alderman Warren Decatur, driver of the other car in the crash, was released after emergency room treatment here.

Corn, soybean surplus seen; land diversion, trade urged

Last week's record-high estimates of U.S. corn and soybean crops re-emphasizes the need to expand foreign markets and to have an effective land diversion program set by U.S. Agriculture Secretary Bob Bergland, according to Illinois Farm Bureau Vice-President John White.

The U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) has forecast a record 6.82 billion bushel corn crop, seven percent above last year's record. Soybean production is forecast at a record 1.79 billion bushels, two percent above last year.

"The crop report indicates that farmers are going to be faced with a major surplus of corn and other feed grains by the end of the 1978-79 marketing year," White said.

"If steps are not taken now to curb overproduction, the state's corn farmers will be faced with serious income problems, with prices headed below production costs."

White said the Farm Bureau is also keeping an eye on reports from Soviet Union trade delegation in Washington and on what is learned from a mission to the Soviet Union by four midwestern Farm Bureau presidents and members of the grain industry.

In Washington, the USDA said the U.S. has offered the USSR 15 million metric tons of U.S. grain for the third year of a five-year trade agreement between the two countries. The Soviets also have been told the U.S. could supply more than that amount.

Farm Bureau President Harold B. Steele is on the team in the Soviet Union on a trade and study mission. Purpose of that trip is to study Soviet crop production and determine what effect President Carter's human rights policy will have on the trade agreement.

The team also is seeking to convince the Soviets to expand grain trade with the U.S. for a Soviet reserve.

In the U.S., the Farm Bureau has called for an immediate announcement of a land diversion program aimed at producing 5.5 billion bushels of corn in 1979.

Bergland agreed in principle with Farm Bureau leaders in September to a program to meet that goal. He is expected to announce the land diversion plans early this week.

"Early announcement of the program is needed, so farmers will know the rules for next year and can plan their crops and prepare of their land accordingly," White said.

2 admit theft

Curtis Houston Haller, 18, of Wayneville, Mo.; and Wayne G. Clark, 21, of 217 Grand Ave., were fined $200 each after pleading guilty in court in Granite City Friday 10:15 a.m.

The two allegedly stole prescription medication and $10 cash from the purse of Francis Keene, 50, 1904 Grand Ave., after helping her home at 1 a.m. Friday.

They allegedly told police they threw the purse in weeds at Norwood Drive and Old Alton Road, where officers recovered it.

Officers saw a suspicious van leaving the rear parking lot of Granite City High School South a short time after the theft occurred and stopped the van, allegedly finding 34 librium pills and 12 aspirin tablets on the console.

The two in the van allegedly admitted taking the pills from the purse and pled guilty in court to the theft charge.

3 of state's congressional battles are unusually close

By ROBERT ESTILL
Press-Record
Washington Bureau

With the success of Camp David behind him, President Carter can count on a more enthusiastic welcome if he campaigns in Illinois for Democratic congressional candidates.

Three Illinois Democrats are locked in congressional battles seen as so tight that every bid for the voters' attention could be significant.

—Fred Steffen of Elgin has been mounting a vigorous uphill fight against Rep. Robert McClory, R-Lake Bluff.

—Rep. Abner Mikva of Evanston re-elected by only 201 votes in 1976, faces a tough contender in State Rep. John Porter, R-Evanston.

—And State Sen. Terry Bruce, D-Oleky, is vying with Danville dentist Dan Crane, brother of Rep. Philip Crane, R-Mount Prospect, for the seat being vacated by Rep. George Shipley, D-Oleky.

Spokesmen for both Mikva and Bruce say their tigers could wear the "PCBC" buttons (For Carter Before Camp David) that have been showing up on lapels here.

Marc Cutright, Steffen's campaign manager, frankly concedes they probably would not have invited Mr. Carter to campaign in their district if his popularity had not increased after his diplomatic score at Camp David.

"If he had volunteered, we would have welcomed him," said Cutright.

"But Carter lost this area by about a two-to-one margin in 1976. This is a Republican district. We are swimming upstream, and we do not need to be pulling anyone with us."

But now, if Mr. Carter should come in to lend Mikva a hand, Cutright said they would welcome a side trip into their area.

Cutright said Mr. Carter has improved his standing with voters not only by the Camp David victory but also with his vetoes of defense and public works spending bills.

When it is all said and done, however, Cutright does not see a presidential visit as swaying that many votes. The chief benefits he sees are the publicity and the firing up of the campaign workers.

Sandy Horvitz, Cong. Mikva's press secretary, said Mikva invited Pres. Carter to come to Illinois before the Camp David summit meeting, but they have not received any word from the White House.

"I do not think AB believes a president wins or loses congressional elections, but a visit does create enthusiasm," Horvitz said. "Carter lost our district 60-40, and AB won by 201 votes. There are no 'coattails' that we can see."

Lee Beneze, Bruce's campaign manager said they are not latecomers to the bandwagon. Bruce took some Southern Illinois farmers to Springfield to meet with Mr. Carter on a presidential visit in May.

"I think the president is pretty powerful, even when he is in the bottom pits of the polls, and we would be even more enthusiastic now," said Beneze.

Rep. John B. Anderson, R-Rockford, says he has no intention of voluntarily vacating his post as House Republican Conference Chairman, even though he will be busy in 1979 testing support for a potential presidential bid in 1980.

The conference is a forum for Republican representatives to discuss party or individual positions on legislation. As its chairman, Anderson is the number three ranking House Republican.

Anderson said he did not feel his presidential water-testing would conflict with his conference chairman role, but would abdicate as chairman if he decides to try for the GOP presidential nomination.

Speaking of presidential hopefuls, Rep. Philip Crane, the only officially announced GOP contender, missed the closing action of this Congress.

The Mount Prospect Republican left Washington Oct. 9 on a two-week, 14-state, 42-city, 8,000-mile campaign jaunt on behalf of Republican candidates and, of course, to make himself known to those who might be saying, "Who is this guy Crane who wants to be president?"

He is flying on a chartered plane, appropriately nicknamed "The Early Bird."

Will House Minority Whip Robert Michel, R-Peoria, try to move up from number two House Republican to number one when Republicans meet in December to organize for the new Congress convening in January?

The answer depends to a large part on how well Republican congressional candidates fare in the off-year elections.

If Republicans, now outnumbered two-to-one in the House, gain only 10 or 12 seats, House Minority Leader John Rhodes, R-Ariz., could find his "neck" on the chopping block.

The ever congenial Michel, regarded as a team player, is not the type to scream for blood (at least not from his own party).

But if there is a move to oust Rhodes as leader, or if Rhodes is not re-elected to Congress, Michel might well be the popular choice for successor.

Phones at Dixon office aiding deaf

Secretary of state Alan J. Dixon announced Friday that two portable telephone units have been installed in his office to enable the deaf to use a toll-free telephone number (800-253-8980) for inquiries.

Dixon is the first statewide elected official to install such devices for the deaf in his office.

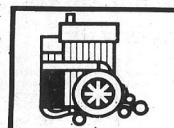

"I am pleased to include this added service to the deaf in the secretary of state's office," Dixon said. "My goal is to make the 800-line accessible to everyone."

Use of the system is the result of cooperative efforts of Sound Barrier, Inc., a Springfield-based company which serves the deaf in 17 states.

When a call is received from a deaf person, using one of these devices in his home, a tone sounds on one of the units in the secretary's office, alerting an operator.

Messages are transcribed from a keyboard to a viewing UNDERCOATING — RALPH'S TEXACO. 22nd & MADISON AVE.

screen, Dixon said the equipment is compatible with all existing units used by the deaf.

A double ring ceremony was performed in a candlelight setting at 7:30 p.m. by Jack Simons.

The sanctuary was illuminated with burning tapers in tall branch candelabra entwined with greenery and the altar was decorated with bouquets of carnations and daisies, interspersed with greenery.

Attending the bride as maid of honor and bridesmaids were, Miss Nancy Ashby, Miss Pam West, Miss Pat West, Miss Lisa Revelle, and Miss Glenda Calvin.

Sheila Wrigley and Jessica Revelle, a cousin of the bride, served as flower girls.

In Memoriam 33

In Loving Memory of DOROTHY M. MOORE
October 16, 1977
One year has passed since that sad day—
When one we loved was called away.
God took her home—
It was His will,
And our hearts she liveth still.
Sadly missed by

In Loving Memory of Our Mom, MARY RARDIN
October 16, 1978
She is out of sight,
But never out of mind.
She is cherished in the Hearts of those who left behind.
For memory is the only thing,
That grief can call its own.
